Hullabaloo Wins Arrow Selling Stakes At Empire/Track

Cleverly Ridden, 15 to 1 Shot Beats Favorite By a Length

Heavily Played Marrone Stable Entry, Daydue and Whisk, Finish Second and Third; 'Sponge' Game Appears Again; Emotion Wins in Final Event

The nightriders are working up at Empire City. If not the nightriders at least the "sponge" boys. And the sponge boys, compared to nightriders, are as low as a snake's stomach against the noonday sun. One of the horses that went to the post in the closing race at Empire City yesterday afternoon coughed up a sponge as he or she was ambling to the paddock following the preliminary exercise gallop. The wife of a well known boxer saw the exhaust, and thought the thoroughbred had dropped its false teeth. She told a stable bay. The stable boy told a well known trainer.

When he went out to investigate he found a round, white sponge about the size of an English billiard ball that appeared to have been doctored by some sort of lotion. Fearing contamination from poison, this trainer laid the sponge on the fence-rail. It soon disappeared myste-

Stewards Should Investigate

Partly for the benefit of the stewards is the foregoing written. The old "sponge" game was attempted yesterday afternoon. If the stewards are zealous in safeguarding the interests of the running turf they will investigate. The case should be investigated. Stewards should know that horses of not go around the track coughing sponges from their nostrils.

Midget Smith and Frankic Coster esterday's raving was not so sad for beginning of the end before the can meet at Saratoga. Favorites ided the card with outsiders, and it is something on the metropolitan cuit this year. The card was a sap one. But the only heat which any stretch of the imagination ght be considered a metropolitan ture witnessed the most sensational set of the afternoon.

Wills Clearly Hullshales clearly

Clancy's Hullabaloo, cleverly by Jodgey L. McAtee, showed Chicago Welcomes Firemen Stakes of $3,000. Daydue and Whisk, coupled in the colors of the Marrone stable and heavily played as the public's selection, finished second and third, respectively. Hullabaloo beat Daydue by a full length. The latter was a length behind its stable companion at the end. Hullabaloo displayed a world of speed and quickly stepped out to the lead, holding his advantage safely from start to finish. Fifty yards from home the gelding seemed to tire under McAtee's hustling ride, but already the day had been won. Hullabaloo won one of the juciest melons of a day that ran somewhat to melon cutting. He was played from 15 to 1 to 10 to 1. As to Emotion, which was associated with the race which developed the attempted "sponge" practice, this was a horse of a directly different color. The hardy boys on the lawn must have thought Emotion had a beey of sponges up her snout to lay such odds as even 4 to 5. McAtee, who just now is the king of the jockeys, slid off the early pace till rounding the home turn. Then he came away in the stretch to win in a common gallop.

The Greentree Stable's Bonus slipped in the colors of the general colors. Significantly part of the policy and present parts. Ducks and Drakes fluids for the pean, came and in the stretch to win in a common gallop.

The Rancocas Stable ran one-two with Thunderclap and Little Chief, re-spectively, in the White Plains Handi-cap at about six furlongs. Thunder-clap came like a rocket through the attetch and ran over all competition after Little Chief had put away Wish-bore the early necessater. On Watch bone, the early pacemaker. On Watch, backed from 2 to 1 to 8 to 5, found the weight far too much for him, and never was a serious contender in the field of four.

Bessie Leighton took the opening dash of five and a half furlongs, racing around Peter Brown at the stretch turn to come off to a somewhat easy victory. Peter, which showed lots of early speed, stopped to a walk inside the sixteenth pole. Louise Groody, the favorite, which finished last, was a contender until half way round the turn, when she was badly cut down, apparently by Ducks and Drakes, which finished third. Something ran up on Louise Groody from behind and almost severed a tendon of the nigh hind leg just above the fetlock. The filly was so badly crippled she may never be able to race again.

so badly crippled she may never be able to race again.

William Martin's Zed, which beat a cheap field of a donen platers in the second race at a mile and seventy yards, was just about twice as good a thing as lads who gather odds for the form charts allowed their consciences to concede. Nobody could miss 15 to 1 on Zed at the opening. He closed at 6 to 1. J. Caliaham, breaking on the outside, stole a long lead early and never had to let his mount down.

The fifth race at five and a half furlongs fetaured maiden jockeys and little Bush carned bia first brackets with Suspicion, a tender-footed filly of the Syndicate Stable. Ghost probably was the best, but reared as the barrier was sprung. Hammond rushed Ghost up at top speed on the outside and then hooked up in a duel to the death with Susiana, Suspicion's stablemate. Suspicion, laying off the pace, moved up and took Ghost so soon as the latter and fix bolt.

Esta G. Easily Mistress of Field in 2.18 Pace: Lee Tide Leads 2.17 Trotters

Arch W. Kinney, a star at indoor pole in New York, made the winning goal less than a minute after the start of the ninth period and before the teams had fairly swung in action.

The first half ended in a tie at 3 to 3. Herbert Winn, another well known New York indoor pole player, made both goals for Eatontown. George H. Earle shot a goal in the fifth and Bryn Mawr took the lead, but a pretty side shot by Winn event up the score at the end of this period.

Neither team scored in the sixth.

that to happen

This is the first time to our knowledge that Taylor and Herd have made an extended tour playing as a team. Yet it is our belief they will do fully as well as Vardon and Ray or Duncan and Mitchell. Vardon and Ray, in our opinion, made up one of the greatest teams in golf history. Duncan and Mitchell are a formidable pair and Jim Barnes and Jock Hutchison were as good as any.

Earnes and Hutchison team to perfection. In some forty games they were beaten only five times on their tour last winter, three of those defeats coming at the very start of their long jaunt. That pair didn't miss a trick. Hutchison always played first and air. Hutchison endeaving to snatch any birdies that were in sight. They were always best under pressure. So were Vardon and Ray for that matter.

One of the greatest exhibitions Harnes and Huthison gave was at San Antonio, where, wearied and overgolfed after their forced march down the Pacific Coast, they were forced to play phenomenal golf to defeat Tom Laily and Clarence Mangham, two very capable youngsters, for a purse of $500, It was a gruelling struggle in which the champions were obliged to ge three extra holes to win.
